Frequently Asked Questions:

1. What is a short-term rental? A short-term rental is the rental of an entire dwelling unit for monetary consideration for a period of time less than thirty (30) consecutive days, not including a bed and breakfast, residency unit, accessory tourist rental, boarding or rooming house, or hotel. This definition does not include offering the use of one's property where no fee is charged or collected.
2. Are City of Glenwood Springs' permits or licenses required as a pre-requisite to having a short-term rental in Glenwood Springs? Yes. It will be necessary to obtain a Short-term Rental Permit, a completed/signed Short-term Rental affidavit, and a Business/Sales Tax License before commencing to rent a property as a short-term rental.
3. If I swap my house for another home elsewhere and no money is exchanged, do I need a short-term rental permit? The offering of the use of one's home where no fee is charged or collected is exempt from any City permitting.
4. Is any residential dwelling unit in the City eligible to become a short-term rental or are there certain areas where it is prohibited? The use of homes for short-term rental purposes is regulated via the zoning regulations of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code in Article 070.040 Zoning. Short-term rentals are allowed in all residential and commercial zones. However, short-term rentals are not allowed in Planned Unit Developments (PUDs) unless specifically listed as an allowed use. Additionally, short-term rentals are not allowed in any dwelling unit that has been permitted as an Accessory Dwelling Unit.
5. Who may apply for a Short-term Rental Permit? All permits shall be issued to the owner of the property.
6. What are the requirements for a Short-term Rental Permit? The requirements are listed in the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code at Article 070.040.120 Short-term Rentals.
7. Do I need a business license to operate a short-term rental? A business license is required for short-term rentals. Additionally, short-term rentals are subject to sales and accommodations taxes. Owners are required to charge and collect sales and accommodation taxes. You may apply for a business and sales tax license at the same time you apply for a Short-term Rental permit. (See attached information sheet as to how to apply for a business and sales tax license on line.)
8. Will I need to have my home inspected? No, the property owner will complete and sign a Short-term Rental affidavit in place of an inspection from the building department.
9. Do I need a building permit for a short-term rental? A Building Permit may be required if significant work is being completed on the home prior to it being rented. Contact the City's Building Department at 970-384-6411 if you have questions about whether or not your remodeling or upgrades will require a building permit.
10. What building codes will short-term rentals be subject to? The applicable building code for your property depends on the underlying use of your property. One or more of the following codes will apply: International Property Maintenance Code (IPMC), International Residence Code (IRC), or International Building Code (IBC). The City of Glenwood Springs has adopted the 2015 versions of these codes. Copies are available for review at the Public Library.

Glenwood Springs Municipal Code section 070.040.120- Short Term Rentals.

(a) Intent. The City of Glenwood Springs recognizes that there are benefits to allowing owners of residential units within the City to rent their dwelling units for periods of time less than thirty (30) days. Short term rental of dwelling units bring additional visitors to the City, can allow owners to recoup housing costs, and provides revenues for the City through the additional tax collections. The provision of short term rentals offers additional diversification to the resort and travelling professional accommodations market. However, due to the potential for adverse impacts, short term rentals must be regulated by the City to protect the health, safety, and welfare of owners, neighbors, and visitors.

(b) Applicability. The requirements of this Section shall apply to any residential dwelling unit within the City of Glenwood Springs. This Section does not apply to any residential use within a Planned Unit Development unless specifically listed as a use allowed by the Planned Unit Development. Nor does this Section apply to any dwelling unit permitted as an Accessory Dwelling Unit.

(c) Definition. As used in this Section, the following term shall have this meaning ascribed to it:

Short term rental means the rental of an entire dwelling unit for monetary consideration for a period of time less than thirty (30) consecutive days, not including a bed and breakfast, residency unit, boarding or rooming house, or hotel. This definition does not include offering the use of one's property where no fee is charged or collected.

(d) Requirements, Restrictions, and Standards. The following requirements, restrictions, and standards shall apply to short term rentals:

(1) The City of Glenwood Springs is not a party to and does not enforce any private covenants. Private covenants may restrict the ability for owners to engage in short term rentals.

(2) There shall be a designated responsible party, located within the local region, available for immediately responding to any issues arising from the short term rental. The designated responsible party may be the owner of the property.

(3) The owner or responsible party shall collect and pay all applicable local, state, and federal taxes including sales and lodging taxes.

(4) The owner or responsible party is responsible for ensuring the short term rental meets all applicable local, state, and federal regulations. For example, §38-45-101 C.R.S. et seq. requiring carbon monoxide alarms in residential property. The property owner, responsible party, or other persons shall not reside in the short-term vacation rental unit during periods of short-term rental; however, the property owner or permanent tenants not part of the short-term rental party may occupy the accessory dwelling unit on the property as their residence.

(5) The owner or responsible party is responsible for obtaining all required licenses in accordance with Title 050 of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code.

(6) Occupancy limitations of a short term rental shall be established by the International Property Maintenance Code (IPMC) and shall be indicated on the short term rental permit.

(7) On properties with an accessory dwelling unit, only the primary dwelling on the property shall be eligible for a short term rental permit.

(8) All vehicles shall be parked in designated parking areas, such as driveways and garages, or on-street parking, where permitted. No parking shall occur on lawns or sidewalks.

(9) The owner shall be responsible for ensuring that the short term rental complies with Section 100.010.060 of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code entitled Garbage, refuse, and trash collection. Owners and responsible parties shall make arrangements for proper garbage, refuse, and trash collection.

(10) The following information must be posted in a prominent and visible location in the short-term rental:

- A. City of Glenwood Springs license(s) and short term rental permit;
- B. Contact information for owner and/or responsible party, including a phone number for 24 hour response to emergencies;
- C. Description of location of fire extinguishers and emergency egress; and
- D. Any other information deemed necessary by the Community Development Director to ensure the public's health and safety.

(11) In a multi-family building under single ownership, no more than twenty-five (25%) but at least one (1) unit may be permitted as a short term rental.

(12) All advertising of a short-term rental, including advertising on website vacation booking sites, shall display the City of Glenwood Springs short-term rental permit number and business license number.

(13) A property owner may not be issued both a short-term rental permit and an accessory tourist rental permit on the same property at the same time; however, should an owner wish to change the use of a permitted short-term rental, he or she may do so by filing an application for an accessory tourist rental in accordance with Section 070.040.130 accessory tourist rentals. Upon issuance of a new accessory tourist rental permit, the existing short-term rental permit is automatically revoked.

(e) Application requirements. The owner shall submit the application on the form provided by the Community Development Director and shall pay the application fee set by City Council resolution. The Community Development Director may require submittal of such additional information as is deemed necessary to demonstrate compliance with the requirements of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code including, but not limited to, building code and inspection requirements.

(f) Short Term Rental Permit. All short term rentals shall require a permit from the Community Development Director. This permit shall only be issued after the completion and signed short-term rental affidavit All permits shall be issued to the owner of the property. A change in ownership shall necessitate the issuance of a new permit. Permits shall be issued for a period of two (2) years and shall expire at the end of odd numbered years.

(g) Revocation of Permit. A short term rental permit may be revoked at any time by the Community Development Director should it be determined that the use is not being operated in compliance with this Section or any other section of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code.

(h) Appeals. Appeals of administrative decisions may be made in accordance with Section 070.010.050 of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code.

AFFIDAVIT

By signing this Affidavit I represent that all information contained in this application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and acknowledge and agree to abide by the requirements and restrictions of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code as pertains to short-term rentals and affirm the following:

1. I have obtained a City of Glenwood Springs business and sales tax license as required under Title 050 of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code and will promptly remit all applicable taxes in conformance with state and local law. If an individual or business entity acts as the Responsible Party, only one business license shall be required.

2. The rental of the property herein described is permissible under all applicable local zoning and land use regulations under the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code and any covenants and restrictions imposed by any owners' association with authority over the property.

3. I agree that the City of Glenwood Springs does not inspect accessory tourist rentals for conformance with applicable building codes prior to occupancy, that I am responsible for maintaining the property for health and safety, and to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the City of Glenwood Springs, including its officers, agents, and employees, from any action resulting from damage, loss, injury, including death, of any occupant of the rental property herein described.

4. I have read and understand the requirements, restrictions, and standards of Section 070.040.120 of the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code and shall strictly comply therewith.

Note: A Short-term Rental Permit will only be issued after the application has been reviewed and approved in accordance with the Glenwood Springs Municipal Code. Specific terms and conditions may be included in the permit. All permits will be issued to the owner(s) of the property. A change in ownership requires the new property owner to apply for a new permit. Short-term rental permits expire at the end of odd numbered years. Property owners will be sent a new application form prior to expiration of their permit.
